DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to the amendment filed on 4/16/07. In this amendment, claim 1 has been amended, and claims 6-8 have been added. Overall, claims 1-8 are pending in this application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 6, 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

- In claims 6, 7 of the amendment filed on 4/16/07, the applicants added the claimed limitation "calculate the amount of burnt particulates on the basis of the temperature of exhaust gas in front of the particulate filter or the temperature of the particulate filter, and a fuel burning velocity coefficient" is considered new matter since the originally filed disclosure does not contain any support for the invention as now claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Mikami et al. (US Patent 6,655,133).

Mikami discloses an exhaust gas purifying system for an internal combustion engine, comprising:

an exhaust-after-treatment device disposed in an exhaust system of the internal combustion engine, and including a particulate filter (70) configured to collect particulates from exhaust gas, and an NO<sub>2</sub> generating unit inside the particulate filter (see col. 14, lines 38-46);

a burnt particulate amount calculating unit configured to calculate an amount of burnt particulates on the basis of a temperature of exhaust gas a temperature of the particulate filter, (see Figure 24, col. 16, lines 7-10); and a particulate accumulation amount calculating unit configured to calculate an amount of accumulated particulates on the basis of the calculated amount of discharged particulates and the calculated amount of burnt particulates (see col. 18, lines 35-41).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mikami et al. (US Patent 6,655,133).

Mikami discloses all the claimed limitations as discussed in claim 1 above, however, fails to specifically disclose that the excess air ratio is calculated by a formula:

$$\lambda = Q_a / (Q_f \times 14.7)$$

It is well known for one having ordinary skill in the art to realize that the excess air ratio is calculated by a formula  $\lambda = Q_a / (Q_f \times 14.7)$  where,  $\lambda$  is the excess air ratio,  $Q_a$  is the intake air amount, and  $Q_f$  is the fuel injection amount. Therefore, such disclosure by Mikami is notoriously well known in the art so as to be proper for official notice.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-5 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on 4/16/07 have been considered but they are moot in view of a new ground(s) of rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
